The sermon was preached by Bishop Gibson. The united thank offering amounted to more than $100,000. The attendance was so great that many were turned away, and an overflow meeting was held at All Saints' Church, where a sermon was preached by Bishop Randolph. In the afternoon the auxiliary met in the City Auditorium and listened to addresses by Bishop Root, of Hankow; Bishop Spalding, of Salt Lake; Bishop Aver, of Mexico, and Dr. Lloyd, general secretary of the Board of Missions. The officers of the Women's Auxiliary in Canada were presented to the meeting, and one of them made a short address, thanking her sisters in the United States for their co-operation which has greatly assisted the work of the society in Canada. Addresses of greeting were made by Miss Julia C. Emery, secretary of the society, and Miss Stuart, president of the Virginia branch, said in part: "In the name of the women of the Virginia Branch, it is my pleasant duty and privilege, and I count it a high honor as their president, to bid you a cordial welcome to this old Diocese of Virginia. Three hundred years of welcome ring out to-day from all our hearts as we greet this representative body of devout women from North, South, East and West, from beyond the seas as well as from Canada. 'You are come to unite your thanksgiving with ours on this great anniversary, and to make this day, so long anticipated, a day to be remembered, and to make us of old Virginia glad for years to come. So, with our 'Welcome,' we 'thank you' for your presence, for the bringing to us that which you cannot take away—the sweet influences and happy memories that will linger after you leave us. 'We must cherish our past for the sake of the future, lest we forget to remember all the way the Lord our God hath led us' these 300 years. 'We of Virginia bid you welcome to our midst, daughters of this great American church, whether by inheritance or adoption, for we claim to be the mother of you all.' 'One in Christ, one in heart, one in missionary work in hand.' The keynote of the arch that supports our organization is the unity of the Woman's Auxiliary. Again we bid you welcome to our hearts and homes. All we have is yours to command while our guests. Again and again, a cordial welcome to Virginia!"

Pistol Shots.

About 2:15 o'clock this morning three pistol shots were heard on Cameron street, between Fairfax and Royal. The policemen on duty endeavored to ascertain the cause, but they were unable to do so. Lieut. Pettis today ascertained that the shots were fired from the rear of the Tontine Hotel by Mr. Coles, one of the proprietors. The noise a burglar was making in endeavoring to open the blinds of a window awakened Mr. Coles, and procuring a pistol he started after the trespasser. The latter heard him coming and ran north through the yard, making his escape. It was while the man was fleeing that the shots were fired. The would-be thief was endeavoring to enter a room where a quantity of liquor is stored.

W. C. T. U.

The 25th annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Virginia was held in Harrisonburg this week. The delegates from Alexandria were Mrs. Mary Mathews, Mrs. Noland and Miss Slayton, who brought back a glowing account of the convention and the beautiful town in which it was held. Two sessions of the convention were presided over by Mrs. Amy Weech, who is the State Secretary for the Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union, as well as the State Organizer. Miss Tindling, of England, was present and delivered a fine address. Nearly 100 delegates were present, and the convention was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Roanoke will be the next place of meeting.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Under a resolution of the board of trustees of the Theological Seminary, near this city, there will be a suspension of lectures from yesterday until Monday, October 14th, so as to permit the members of the faculty and the students to attend some of the sessions and meetings connected with the Episcopal General Convention, now sitting in Richmond. A number of the students left yesterday. Dr. Crawford, the dean of the seminary, is one of the deputies from the diocese of Virginia to the convention and of course will be absent from the seminary during the whole time attending the sessions. The meeting of the alumni of the seminary will take place on the night of next Friday, when a banquet will be held in the Masonic Temple, Richmond. It is expected that a large number of the alumni will be present, and an invitation has also been given to the students of the seminary.

WEISS STILL HELD.

Jacob Weiss and his daughter, Amelia, who were arrested yesterday in connection with the assault last Sunday afternoon in the county on John W. Mullen, who was shot twice and seriously wounded, are still held in jail. Emilio, son of Jacob Weiss, last night stated that he would go on his father's bond, but this morning he declined to do so, saying that his father was innocent. Commonwealth's Attorney Mackey had agreed to fix the bond at $1,000 and the refusal of young Weiss to be bondsman greatly surprised Mr. Mackey. The girl, Amelia Weiss, is still held in jail as a witness. She still says that she was assaulted by a negro. No examination into the case will be held till Mullen is able to appear. This it is said he will do in a few days.

WATER FOR DEL RAY.

Some time since a number of residents of Del Ray requested the Alexandria Water Company to supply that village with water. The company acquiesced under certain conditions. The county supervisors, however, imposed such restrictions that the company declined to extend the mains. At a meeting of citizens of Del Ray last night the supervisors were requested to modify the conditions they originally adopted and at a meeting of the supervisors today this was done. It is believed that the water mains will now soon be extended to Del Ray.

"THE SHOPLIFTER."

"The Shoplifter," a melodrama of merit, will be the attraction at the Opera House next Thursday night, and judging from the advance sale of seats a crowded house will greet the company. The company is a large one and carries an immense lot of scenery for the production. Among the scenes will be a stone quarry where rock blasting is going on. A terrific explosion will take place and the villain will be killed by a rock falling on him. Miss Adelaide Walters, who created the part of "Lil, the Wait," will appear in the latest songs and dances.

A MEETING FOR MEN.

There will be a meeting for men in the lecture room of the M. E. Church South, tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 4:30 o'clock—just one hour. An address will be delivered by Rev. Joseph R. Sevier, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church. Subject: "A Truncated Life." There will be a solo by Mr. Kenneth W. Ogden. The following will participate in the exercises: H. K. Field, chorister; A. L. Jameson, violin; C. J. Howell, violin; C. W. Fleet, cornet; Frederick Hill, clarinet; Tebe Creighton, piano. A cordial invitation is extended to all men.

GYPSY FORTUNE-TELLERS.

A band of gypsy fortune-tellers (male and female) have been moving about the city during the past few days. They are subject to a license tax of $100 for conducting such a business, and members of the gang were this morning inquiring for the Commissioner of the Revenue from whom they expected to procure a pro rata license. It is understood that they were willing to pay $75 provided more than one of the party could engage in forecasting the history of such people as may desire to cast a glimpse into the future.

COMMITTEE ON POOR.

The committee on poor held a meeting recently and elected Councilman Williams chairman. It was decided to have one meeting each month and examine and approve all bills contracted in the prior month. The Keeper of the Poorhouse was to be directed when certifying to his correctness of bills to have such bills left at the Auditor's office a few days after the first day of each month in order that the committee might have ample time to examine each and every bill.

FREE METHODIST CHURCH.

The Quarterly Meeting of the Free Methodists of this city and vicinity is being held at the church on South Lee street by Rev. C. S. Miller, District Elder, and will be continued tomorrow. Service will be held tomorrow at 11 a. m. Love Feast at 2:30 p. m. and preaching at 7:30 p. m. Rev. A. W. Myers has been appointed pastor of the church, succeeding Rev. B. A. Sevier, who has been transferred to Rockville, Md.

MR. PETTEY'S PATENT.

Among the exhibits to be shown before the convention of the International Association of Fire Engineers, which meet in Washington commencing on Tuesday and continuing until October 11th, is the invention of Mr. Geo. W. Pettey, of this city. It is an electrical indicator signal for the prevention of collisions between fire apparatus, responding to an alarm, and street cars, vehicles, etc. The device is placed at the intersection of streets in the neighborhood of fire engine houses. It consists of a semi-circular arm, worked automatically, which is set in operation as soon as an alarm is recorded in the engine house. The arm is painted red and white while at night red lights are shown, and both at day and night a gong is sounded for several minutes. A test will be given the invention in Washington on next Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock when seventeen pieces of apparatus will respond to an imaginary alarm. The test will take place at the intersection of 7th street and L. Union avenue, N. W. Mr. Pettey put his exhibit in position in the hall, on C street, between 4-1-2 and 6th streets, northwest, today and invites all Alexandrians to inspect it. The electric work on the patent was done by Messrs. Kirby and Webster, of this city.
